Supporting Families Through Trial Home Visits

Join us this month as Amy Savage, Hope Ambassador from Omni Family of Services (OFS), shares how their agency is putting the Science of Hope into practice across Behavioral Health and Child Welfare.

This session will focus on OFS's innovative work with families of Juvenile Justice youth, especially those preparing for a trial home visit. Amy will walk us through how her team is embedding hope into their approach, sharing practical strategies, tools, and lessons learned. Bring your questions and join the conversation!

💬 There will be time for Q&A and discussion.
